

Inova Loudoun Hospital receives 3 prestigious awards

- Inova Loudoun Hospital attained Nursing Magnet re-designation recognition through the American Nurses Credentialing Center. This award recognizes excellence in nursing. This is the highest honor an organization can receive for professional nursing practice, and is held by only 8% of hospitals nationwide. Inova Loudoun was initially designated a Magnet hospital in 2006, and has been re-designated every four years since based on adherence to Magnet concepts and demonstrated improvements in patient care and quality.
- The Inova Loudoun Children's ER is being awarded with The Lantern Award by the Emergency Nurses Association. This award is given to emergency departments that exemplify exceptional practice and innovative performance in the core areas of leadership, practice, education, advocacy and research. The staff in the Pediatric ED joins the Lansdowne Adult ED in a class of top EDs in the country to receive this prestigious award--only four EDs nationwide were awarded this honor in 2015.
- Inova Loudoun Hospital is one of only 98 Hospitals in the US to earn the "Straight A's" designation from the LeapFrogGroup Hospital Safety Score recognizing the hospital for achieving the letter grade of "A" each time LeapFrog has rated hospitals for patient Safety. The "A" lets patients and families know that we are fully committed to patient safety, a strong safety leader in our community and a safer choice for healthcare when needed by themselves, their families and neighbors.
